"The number of fast foods
modern teenagers consume"

Introduction

This is a report compiled to assess the results of the survey held to find out the difference between the consumption of fast foods by modern teenagers in 2010 and 2016.

The data was collected with the help of Internet tests and interviews among 600 students of the Bell school.

General information

The participants of the survey were asked to answer about their preferences among four types of fast foods: pizza, hamburgers, sandwiches, hot dogs. The most significant trend can be seen in consumption of both hamburgers and sandwiches. While the number of teenagers eating hamburgers fell up to 20%, the popularity of sandwiches rose on 20% in 2016.

Comparison

The consumption of pizza in 2010 was close to 30%. However, in 2016 only 20% of the participants eat it. There is also a slight change in hot dogs consumers. Their number rose on 5% from 15 and became one fifth in 2016.

Conclusion

The results have shown that the consumption of fast foods among teenagers is still high, although their preferences have changed.

The significant fall in consumers of hamburgers can be explained by the worsened quality of this type of fast foods. The risen consumption of sandwiches and hamburgers is connected to the convenient form and size of them. Pizza is becoming more expensive nowadays so that is the probable reason for its smaller popularity.

There can be various predictions for the future. The number of sandwiches supporters will still be rising, the level of hamburgers and pizza consumption will consumption stay at the present position. The hot dogs business tends to develop, so it is likely to expect the extreme growth of hot dogs consumption.

Get a Hobby!

FRUSTRATE - END - WIDE - AMERICA - SOUND - BECOME FLOOD - GUIDE - TURN - FAMILY - BEGIN - MAD

On my bookshelf is a set of 1960 World Book Encyclopedias, the set I grew up with. Volume "H" devotes six and a half pages to the entry on hobbies. The 1995 Grolier Multimedia Encyclopedia my daughter and I use has no listing for hobby. In the shift between these two encyclopedias, we can see a shift in the culture.

The World Book essay 11. guides several, "HOBBY can be almost anything a person likes to do in his spare time." (Spare time? Already we're in 12. wide American territory.) Theodore M. O'Leary, the author, goes on to describe four general classes of "all the hundreds of 13. American wide popular hobbies" -- collections, the arts, games and sports. He helps his readers navigate this sea of leisure in a section called "How to Choose a Hobby." His 14. guideline principle -- hobbies balance jobs.

One topic much discussed in the 1960 World Book is the hobby as a defense against 15. frustration. One article quotes Sir William Osler, "a famous Canadian doctor," as saying that no man could really be "happy or safe" without a hobby. The danger Dr. Osler saw was in the unoccupied mind 16. turning against itself.

Of course in modern 17. mad life, we don't need hobbies; we have the Internet instead.

In the last few years, the World Wide Web 18. became a promising refuge for would-be hobbyists -- both an absorbing pastime in itself and the gateway to the sites of other pursuits. The hacker of today is portrayed much like the hobbyist of yesterday: geeky, socially inept and 19. sound. Look up "Hobby" on any of the popular search engines -- Yahoo, Google, and you 20. will be flooded with entries.

TASK 3. READING (10 points: 1 answer = 1 point)

Put the following sentences in the correct order to recreate the text. Answer sheet 21-31.

Product of the Pros: Coupons

By ALAN SMITH

- 5 ~~7~~ A. Loyalty card coupons she gets at grocery store cash registers also go into her wallet. This way, she remembers to use the coupons.
- 7 ~~8~~ B. But before she shops at those stores Ms. Cook will look at the retailers' sites, as well as do a quick search at her computer or on her phone, for deals she can use in the stores. And when she's shopping at the retailers' e-commerce sites, she'll also be sure to start at the clearance or sale section of the site.
- 1 C. NANCY Cook, vice president of new media business development for the coupon provider Valpak, says she doesn't tend to base her shopping decisions on what she has coupons for.
- ~~8~~ 6 D. She stores these coupons, along with other discount coupons and postcards she receives in the mail, in a drawer in her kitchen. Before going on a shopping trip, she said, she'll grab the coupons from the drawer and stick them in her wallet.
- ~~8~~ ~~9~~ E. As for daily deal sites, Ms. Cook said that, for her job, she subscribes to Groupon and LivingSocial to understand what they are doing. But she said she only buys deals from those sites for weekend experiences that she would want to do anyway with her family. For instance, she has only bought one Groupon, so far, for a family-friendly restaurant in her area.
- ~~8~~ ~~9~~ 3 F. On Sundays, for instance, Ms. Cook scans the coupon section of her local newspaper, looking for and clipping deals on grocery items she plans to buy that week like diapers or soup or cleaning supplies. "I look for specific deals on something that I'm going to go specifically buy," she said.
- ~~8~~ ~~9~~ G. Ms. Cook, the mother of a 2-year-old son and 6-year-old daughter, also tends to shop a lot at stores like the Children's Place, Toys"R"Us and Bed Bath & Beyond for specific items for her family.
- 4 ~~5~~ ~~6~~ H. In addition, Ms. Cook stashes Valpak and other coupons in her coupon drawer for services she knows she's going to have to use soon, like carpet cleaning. Meanwhile, when she is looking for somewhere to eat out, she'll use Valpak's iPhone app and search engines to search for local restaurants offering deals.
