Nowadays fast food is not so famous as it was before. It has become very fashionable to eat healthy food and keep yourself in a good shape. ~~but there are~~ Relying on the fact that teenagers are quite aware of modern things, we asked them to answer some questions about popularity of junk food now.

As the statistics say pizza and hamburgers are not very popular among teenagers in 2016 compared with 2010.

Such changings can be caused by growing interest in fast food and appearing a huge amount of places where people could get such food in 2020. As for the 2016 junk food has become widespread and it can be bought everywhere so the popularity has given up its high positions. However, hot dogs and sandwiches are still very popular and have become even more. As for sandwiches they can be suitable even for people who try to keep their food ration on good terms. Products like sandwiches and hot dogs give us a lot of energy and help not to be hungry throughout the day. That is why they are very popular and much more accessible because you can get it in every shop or on every street. The main thing is that they are cheaper than pizza and hamburgers which you can get in special places in a higher price. Many teenagers name the price to be the most important reason for changings. They also think that more and more people will stop consuming junk food in future. In addition, they believe that the popularity of healthy food will grow as fast as possible while fat food will come to an end.

To sum up, teenagers understand the harm which junk food does, and try to change this situation, beginning with themselves.

~~Nowadays fast food~~ ~~is~~ ~~has stopped~~ being so famous as it is not so famous as it was <sup>before</sup>. It has become very fashionable to eat healthy food and keep yourself in a good shape. <sup>held</sup> <sup>there are a lot of exceptions.</sup> Relying on the fact that ~~it's easy~~ teenagers are <sup>quite</sup> aware of all new modern things, we asked them to answer some questions about ~~nowadays food's popularity~~ of junk food nowadays.

As the statistics ~~are~~ say pizza and hamburgers are not very popular among teenagers in 2016 compared with 2010. Such changes can be caused by growing interest in ~~junk~~ fast food ~~in 2010~~ and appearing a huge amount of places where people could get such food. As for the 2016 people ~~are used to~~ junk food <sup>has become</sup> widespread and it can be bought everywhere so the popularity has given up. <sup>its</sup> <sup>high</sup> <sup>positions, which were</sup> ~~very high.~~ However, hot dogs and sandwiches ~~to~~ are <sup>still</sup> very popular now. As for sandwiches they can be ~~seen~~ <sup>scitable</sup> seen for people who try to keep their food ration on good terms. ~~Some~~ Products like sandwiches and hot dogs give us a lot of energy and help not to be hungry throughout the day. That is why they are very popular and much more accessible because you can get it in <sup>shops</sup> and everywhere on the street. In addition to, <sup>the main thing is that</sup> they are cheaper than pizza or hamburgers. Many teenagers name the price to be the most important reason ~~for~~ changing. They ~~also~~ also think that more and more people will stop consuming junk food in future. ~~and~~ In addition, the popularity of healthy food will grow as fast as possible while fast food will ~~be~~ the last thing people can think come about. ~~The~~ ~~price~~ ~~of~~ ~~junk~~ ~~food~~ ~~will~~ ~~come~~ ~~down~~ ~~to~~ ~~an~~ ~~ext.~~

They believe that

To sum up, teenagers understand the harm which junk food does and try to change their <sup>situation</sup> habits. Unfortunately, quite few people can ~~totally~~ deny from so fast and tasty ~~to~~ food. Teenagers hope that this will be a seldom session in future. that people eat such food on a daily basis.
