WRITING

Four hours ago students from every school went on the streets of Kazan shouting a name of event that event which was "Let Children Study". The charity charity event took place next to the park called after Maksim Gorkiy. It was the 12th of April, the sun was shining, thus, a lot of people were walking there.

All students had collected next to the fountain and everyone had put on his sport suit and trainers by the time of lunch. All of them were walking and it looked like a crowd of crazy students whose lessons had just finished. Some people thought it was a rebellion of students whose rights had been broken. As a matter of fact, it has a part of truth. Their aim was to raise money for building schools in poor villages where children couldn't easily become students.

As a result, a large amount of adults went after them and they came to the main building of Et Education where a leader of students began to collect money. Fortunately, they students collected a large amount of money. Thus, there will be a school in the biggest village.

An importance of that event is that lots of children will not need to go to schools which are far from their homes.

"We knew that there are lots of good people who think about other people. If I was a student, I'd do the same," said Ekan Ekan Lott who saw everything through the window of his flat.

TASK 1. LISTENING COMPREHENSION (20 points: 1 answer = 2 points)

For questions 1-10 complete the notes below filling in the gaps with ONE WORD AND/OR A NUMBER.

You will listen to the text ONCE. You have 1 minute to look through the task.

Forgetting things

Tom has always had trouble remembering his girlfriend's cousin's (1) name. He usually (2) avoids calling her anything, which was what he did last time they met. Nobody but his girlfriend noticed that and she was not (3) impressed. She was so angry that she would (4) not speak to Tom for the rest of the afternoon.

Lucy was actually really looking (5) forward to it, but she was so busy that forgot about it completely. By the time she remembered, all the decent shops were closed and she (6) gave up getting him a DVD from a petrol station. He'd bought Lucy some pearl (7) earrings. Lucy forgot about their anniversary and that's why she felt (8) terrible. Apparently, there's some kind of anniversary alert (9) that you can get and they'll send you messages with suggestions for (10) gifts. Lucy will definitely use it next year!

Memory Creative Scrapbooking

BECOME - FRAME - INVENT - NICE - EXTREME - TREASURE - TURN

For centuries the art of scrapbooking has been kept alive because we all love mementos and souvenirs of our past. We all like taking photos of our friends and our families because very often we do not get to spend as much time as we would like with them. Creative memories scrapbooking is a wonderful way of keeping these special occasions alive. It is a way of capturing the 11. ~~moment~~ pressure moments you spend together in a personal photographic journal that you can make as decorative as you like. nice

Very often all our photographs stay in boxes or drawers because we never seem to have the time to sort through them. Some of our favorite ones may 12. frame or put into albums which then just stay on a bookshelf gathering dust.

Scrapbooking 13. becomes a wonderful hobby for people to do when they are at home and creative memory scrapbooking means that all those old photos can now be retrieved from the boxes and drawers to be sorted and reminisced over in the 14. turn of possible ways.

It is a very therapeutic pastime which keeps memories alive for the whole family to enjoy and appreciate. This whole concept of scrapbooking is an 15. extreme approach to making sure nothing is ever forgotten. Scrapbooks are far nicer than simple photo albums because you can make them into beautifully decorative books which have your own very personal touch to them. These books tell the world exactly who you are and how you express yourself.
