Remembering things

Tom's sister used to put little sticky (1) notes all over the house with the things she was trying to memorise. They were absolutely everywhere. That's what Tom should have done while revising for exams. For that subject there were (2) heaps of dates and place names. Tom knew that if he didn't get them straightened out in his (3) mind, his chances of getting a good mark in the finals were out of the (4) window.

Anna needed to get some (5) change for the ticket machine to get to the airport otherwise she was going to miss her (6) flight. Anna studied French for about seven years but it was really rusty. She was desperately trying to remember how to say the phrase 'I need change' but all that came into her head were words in (7) Spanish. Anna believes that if you conjure up an (8) image of the person who originally taught you or told you something, you sometimes remember it. Anna thought of her old French (9) teacher and suddenly a complete sentence (10) popped into her head. She got the change to buy a ticket.
