TASK 4

Education overseas

By Samantha Green, World News reporter

Moscow, Russia

Thursday, May 14, 2020

Studying abroad is a real life-changing experience. Nowadays many students tend to move overseas. Interestingly, one of the most popular destinations is Russia. We decided to question foreign students from Eastern and Western countries about the issue. So, we'll tell you about the benefits of studying in the world's largest country.

The most important advantage is comprehensive education. Russian universities offer a wide range of disciplines, develop different skills and broaden your horizons.

Scholarships are top-2 in our rating. They seem impressive for Europeans and Americans but in Asia scholarship is even bigger.

Another academic drive is a wide range of educational programs. It's more important for Asian students because range of programs in Asia is narrow compared to other countries.

Last but not least is an opportunity to obtain dual diplomas. It is especially important for Asians because in Eastern countries having a dual diploma is prestigious.

Unfortunately, adaptation can be difficult. This is what Li from China says: "Russia is like the new world for me. Sometimes I feel really confused!"

Nowadays organisations helping international students appear and we hope that their number will increase.

Russia is a unique country with many perspectives. We hope that in future more and more students will gain education here. We're waiting for you!
