Online language learning is a state-of-the-art educational method, which perfectly suits both the youngsters and the grown-ups. Lots of people nowadays find it appealing as online studying meets their needs.

We conducted a research to find out the reasons encouraging school students and adults to choose this form of education. There are some trends which have been revealed during the study. Thus, flexible schedule and multimedia content are the key factors for online foreign language learning among school students. It is quite predictable data as teenagers must balance their preparation for extracurricular activities. The diversity of information makes it hard to learn, audio, images, videos are popular among students. As for adults, we can notice the great interest in lower prices factor, flexible schedule and less time investment. It is due to the workload which is relevant to most of the adults. They just do not have enough time to study – they should meet their professional deadlines.

Today, under the circumstances of coronavirus, there is a large increase in the online study popularity. Now it is not an option, it is the only way to learn something new, so online language learning rate will significantly grow in the future.

So, online language learning is very attractive for both students and adults.
