Task 2

A BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE TEXT ABOUT REALISM

According to Wikipedia, Realism was an influential artistic movement aimed to reflect typical aspects of life with truth. Realist works usually depicted everyday situations and people of all social classes without omitting the unpleasant details of their mundane lives. The Realists tended to use gloomy colours in their works in order to avoid idealization.

Realism emerged in the 1840s. It was led by Gustave Courbet. When the movement became widespread, the word "Realism" was often used to describe a tighter painting style. The Peredvizhniki group greatly contributed to the movement in Russia. Ilya Repin was one of the most notable artists.

Personally, I believe Realism was a significant artistic movement. Not only did the Realists portray the ordinary existence of individuals, but they also explored the new social values of that time. Their works captured the changes that the society was going through.

HOW I LOST A BOOK AND FOUND A FRIEND

I woke up in the morning and found myself in an unfamiliar place with only sand all around. ~~It seemed that I was lying in the middle of a large desert. Confused, I rubbed my eyes and tried to figure out where I was, then I heard my mum's voice. "Do you like Egypt so far, Jane?" she~~

My parents loved travelling more than anything but it was never my cup of tea. ~~what I hated the most about going~~ I hated to leave the comfort of my room, ~~to~~ adjust to new conditions and meet new people.

All I wanted was to return to my hotel room, ~~and stay inside. Travelling was never my cup of tea.~~ Fortunately, after spending a few more hours in the desert, we packed our things and drove back to the hotel.

As soon as we came back, I ^{decided} ~~decided~~ to read ~~my~~ my favourite book by the shore. ~~It was boiling hot, so I hoped that the gentle breeze by the sea would cool me down.~~ All of a sudden, a strong wind swept me off my feet and my book fell in the sea. My heart filled with dread at once. ~~The only thought of jumping into~~ I never learnt to swim and the only thought of jumping into those gigantic waves ~~scared me to death.~~ I realised there was every chance of ~~losing~~ losing my favourite book forever. I looked around and ~~saw~~ saw a boy. Our eyes met. "Hey! Could you help me, please?" I screamed at the top of my lungs. ~~To my surprise, the boy rushed to me. The boy smiled and rushed to me. "What do you want need?"~~

The boy ~~rushed~~ rushed to me. "What's wrong?" he asked. I pointed at the book that was drifting away in the sea. Without any hesitation, the boy jumped in the waves. ~~I was taken aback by his~~

Unfortunately, his endeavour didn't end successfully. My book seemed to have gone forever. "Don't be sad, I have a panoply of books in my hotel room. We can read together!" the boy suggested after getting out of the water.

That boy became my closest friend. Even though I lost my book, I found friendship. ~~and~~ It was more precious than anything.
