Task 4

Nowadays the question of organizing working schedule is vital for many companies and businesses. While a significant number of organizations use ~~standard~~ ^{common} five-day workweek, ~~another model~~ ^{another model} four-day model ^{is} ~~is~~ ^{and controversial} gaining popularity and it shows interesting ^{and controversial} results.

On the one hand, this type of working schedule allows workers to have more free time, which they can spend on friends, family members, various pastimes and hobbies. ~~This results in~~ As a result, they increase their productivity, avoid stress and ~~manage their~~ ^{work tasks} overall feel happier. Moreover, they become more loyal to their employers and thus do not skip any workdays.

On the other hand, four-day workweek is not suitable for every industry, especially for those that require constant service. Additionally, some workers find it hard to adapt to this kind of schedule as they have to do the same amount of work in less time. Furthermore, reducing hours can lead to decrease productivity and deteriorate ~~many~~ services' quality.

Лерковик 3

Personally, I believe that ^{does not} the four-day work week ~~only seems to~~ develop working conditions. It makes \uparrow workers think that they have more free time, however, in reality, they quickly become overwhelmed with work because they have less time to do it. ~~Some of it~~ Given that, workers may need to spend some time finishing their tasks on weekend.

In conclusion, I would like to say that the four-day ~~work~~ week has both advantages and disadvantages. It is for companies to decide which model they like better. However, they must think carefully whether this model suits their needs.

Task #5 Unbelievable circumstances

Today people have become addicted to social media. It's now a routine to wake up and instantly grab your phone to check if someone made a post. Some people spend hours scrolling their feed. ~~There's~~ There's also another kind ~~who~~ of people who post every single minute of their life - what they eat, what they do and what they think. Imagine that ~~you~~ one day you ~~wake up~~ and realize that social media is gone. Forever. ~~For no reason at all.~~

It's like it's never existed. Imagine that there exists another universe ^{with planet Earth}. They have everything we have. Yet there's one difference, they don't have any kind of social media and never had one. What ~~would~~ ~~th~~ do they do in their free time? How do they cope without social networking? Here's my version of what's happening ~~on~~ ~~th~~ there.

Strange world

As social media isn't present people have no real source to show off. For some it ~~would~~ means they have to find another job because influencers, bloggers and streamers don't exist. Others have to find another ^{posts of hobby} because they can't just watch their favourite bloggers all day. People here spend more time in fresh air, walking in parks and having a talk with friends. The only way here to talk to distant relatives or friends ^{see's} by phone. People are only able to ~~know~~ latest news on TV. The information ^{spreads} relatively slow because it requires ^{lot of time} to broadcast every single event that happened in the world. However, it didn't really make people suffer. Actually, they ^{it'} life become simpler as they now don't waste time and spend it on personal growth.

~~Reading books is a good way~~

What would you do?

I'm sure there're people who see a different picture of this world. ~~Make~~ Don't be afraid of telling your opinion in the comment section.
