Task 4: TBS: 98 „Medival times are here again?” /

Have you ever imagined living the way people ~~lived five or seven hundred years ago?~~ used to live five or seven hundred years ago? Most of the ~~people~~ ^{as the humans} have read about medival times in history textbooks at school, but ~~they scarcely can~~ only a few of them have experienced it in reality. I'm lucky to have a festival in my city devoted to the previous centuries. Let me immerse you in its atmosphere!

Firstly, it's essential to tell some facts about the festival's history. One day twenty years ago, a group of historians who were working together in a local university got a request from the city's mayor to create some event to educate the population and broaden its knowledge in history. ~~The~~ After several months of hard work and planning, the group ~~was~~ recieved a grant to finally establish an annual festival dedicated to the medival times. Initially, the city's citizens were sceptical about the idea. However, after attending the festival everyone was thrilled!

Next, I want to immerse you in the festival itself. It's a grand ~~event~~ and ~~the location~~ it spans a vast area! Here you can find a large number of sections, each of them shows the medival times in European countries. There are ~~parts of medi~~ a lot of reconstructions of real medival streets of some real towns and cities. There are real shops and bazars where you can ~~see~~ ^{find} actors playing medival citizens and shop owners. What's more, each of them speaks the way people would speak hundreds of years ago! You can try doing some activities and become a smith, shepherd or an equestrian here! Such is the amazement you can get here!

As you see, the event is probably one of the best historical events that currently exist. I strongly recommend you visiting it if you happen to be in Moscow. You will cer- 2
