Task 4.

A Plunge into the World of Literature

2 Word is a subtle tool which, in case of being used precisely, with all due respect and patience, can spill the light onto the most beautiful things from the depth of our souls and from the world around us. The art of word is constantly developing and many people find it hard to keep up with it. So, in order to bring out the newest pieces of literature, highlight majoring writing styles and forms, many literature festivals are held all over the world. One of them is the annual Platonov festival which takes place in Voronezh, Russia.

Platonov festival is, by far, the biggest literature festival in Southern Russia. People from about ten regions congregate in Voronezh to "praise the art of written and spoken word". The programm of the festival is different every year, but the ~~the~~ list of events always includes the review of recently published books which vary from simple realistic novels to sophisticated pieces of postmodernism and metamodernism. In my opinion, ~~this event~~ visiting this event is the best way to get introduced to modern literature. Also, during this festival you have a chance to meet your favorite writers and ask questions about their work. Last year, ~~the author~~ famous author Zekher Prilepin became a guest of Platonov festival.

2 Every day of Platonov festival is filled with the bright ~~the~~ performances of local actors. I think, It makes participating in this festival even more memorable and inspiring. You can ~~see~~ enjoy outstanding avant-garde performances along with well-known classic plays and even take part in a performance yourself. And if you have some poetry to share, you can publish it in the ~~newspaper~~ special magazine of Platonov festival for free.

I ~~never~~ believe Platonov festival is an outstanding event that helps people learn more about modern literature. It not only helps local writers gain popularity but gives opportunities for everyone to show their talents. It is a great way to delve deeply into the world of literature.
