Task 3

(21) B

Even when work gets crazy, I make sure to carve out time for a session. I think it's essential to have something in your life that helps you stay grounded.

(22) C

What's more, being a part of the club has introduced me to some wonderful people who've become close friends.

(23) A, B

What I love the most about baking is how calming it is - it really makes my mind off everything else. For me, it is the mental clarity it brings that makes it so valuable. I've noticed I'm much more focused and productive when I keep up with my practice.

(24) C

Acting has allowed me to think outside the box and explore a side of myself I never really tapped into before.

(25) A

Maybe one day I can turn this passion into a small business.

(26) B, D

~~Yoga isn't just about the physical exercise, although it's a great workout. (It didn't take long for me to see the benefits.)~~

It's not just about the physical exercise, although climbing trails definitely has got me in my best shape. Every climb makes me feel a little stronger, both mentally and physically.

(27) B

It's become a non-negotiable part of my week, and I genuinely believe everyone should find their version of yoga to stay balanced and happy.

(28) A

I've always baked, but it was something I used to do only occasionally, usually when there was a special occasion or I wanted to surprise my family with homemade treats and I didn't feel over the moon when I was doing it. Then, a few months ago, I decided to join a weekend artisan bread-making workshop. I was amazed...

(29) D

What I love the most is how disconnected I feel from the online world while I'm out there. There's no buzzing phone, no endless emails.

(30) C

I never pictured myself joining a drama club - it felt so outside my comfort zone, I also really doubted that I could ever like something like that.

Task 4

Just Do It

Have you ever participated in cultural events in your town or are you a couch potato that prefers to stay indoors playing computer games? Whatever your answer is, this article is definitely for you! Immerse yourself in historic atmosphere, try to cook as our ancestors did, become a member of a festival.

My hometown is Lipetsk, it is a small but friendly city. We have many traditions from the past: baking homemade treats, dancing, singing and supporting each other. My favourite cultural event is held every June. People dressed in traditional Russian clothes come to a park. Everybody dances, sings and has fun. There are many classes on how to make bread out of wheat. This day we buy souveniers, eat our traditional food (blini, borscht, pelmeni) and try to make a photo with goats that bring luck according to Russian legends.

Although there are many cultural events in my country this one is my favourite for several reasons. Firstly, it is held in Lipetsk, I can participate in it with my family and friends. Secondly, people there are friendly, that makes me feel welcomed and loved. The main reason for stating this event as my favourite one is the variety of activities I can do. The choice is really huge! As I have already mentioned, we can make food, buy souveniers, watch open-air films and cartoons, dance, sing and play games. What a pleasure!

To conclude, such festivals help us to restore to our history and feel the substantive difference between "now and then". Ultimately, in my opinion, it is an essential part of our country's development. To my mind, cultural events should become a wider community as it is a crucial aspect of our lives.
