On a nice day in the countryside, everything felt calm. I was walking with my friends along the tracks ~~in~~ in the quiet forest. The only sound that we could hear was birds' singing. We were talking about different things, such as our school and the beauty of the nature.

Suddenly, a loud noise surprised every one. We heard a thunder not really far from where we were walking. It was unexpected because we hadn't expect the rain or something worse. We looked up at the sky and found out that it was blue and there weren't any clouds. We decided to continue our walk. Then, suddenly, we found the tree that had been hit by the thunder. It was cracked in two ^{pieces}, but the most interesting thing was that many animals were there. They ~~surrounded~~^{surrounded} the tree and sat like that for some time. After a few minutes of observing that tree, we decided to go home. As we were chatting and walking, we heard someone following us. I looked around and saw all those animals that we had ~~seen~~ seen near the tree. They were looking directly at my friends and me. I got afraid of their peculiar behavior and decided to get home as fast as possible.

I'd never thought something so interesting would happen to me. Later my grandmother told me that everyone who had ever been in that forest heard that strange sound.
