~~The Monster that Lurked in the Forest~~

~~Biology Lesson Gone Wrong~~

The Beast of the Countryside's Forest

On a nice day in the countryside, everything felt calm. We were having our biology lesson outdoors to study the forests of our region. After we thoroughly examined the biological diversity of these lands and took notes, the teacher recounted the number of pupils. ~~Turned out that~~ <sup>It turned out that</sup> we were missing a student. The teacher checked the list of students and quickly deducted that Paul was the missing one. 'Paul, come out! The lesson is over!' we all shouted. But nobody came.

Suddenly, a loud noise surprised everyone. ~~This was~~ That wasn't Paul's voice. It was a frightening roar of a beast coming from afar! Some dared to check what had happened, some refused to do that. A small part of the class along side with the teacher formed a rescue group that'd find the missing child at any cost. We entered the depths of the forest, moving towards the source of the sound. We managed to find Paul, but there was no beast whatsoever! Paul held his toy dinosaur in his left hand and a megaphone in his right hand. It didn't take long for us

Числовик 4. understood
 to ~~catch up with~~ what he had done.
 He pulled ~~out~~ a prank on us by connecting the dinosaur's jaws to the ~~mic~~ megaphone.
 With a press of a button the ~~dino~~ dinosaur would roar ~~th~~ ~~so loudly~~ it didn't ~~come~~ as like a beast!

I'd never thought something so interesting would happen to me.
 As I shared the news, my classmates's faces ~~turned~~ <sup>would turn</sup> from shocked to joyous.
 Although I have ~~to admit~~ that some ~~looked~~ kind of pouty! Although some of them looked annoyed at Paul!
