INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this report is to examine ~~the~~ the most common reasons for learning languages online to make a prediction about various segments of the population. ~~and to make a conclusion about what indeed motivates people to study languages.~~ The report per se is fully based on the survey which was conducted in January this year. Approximately 1000 school student and 500 adults took part in this survey.

ADULTS ARE STILL MOTIVATED TO LEARN

According to the illustrated graph, ~~almost~~ a third of the older population is encouraged to learn languages online due to the fact that distance education is considerably cheaper. ~~The explanation for this trend can be~~ this can be observed because e-learning helps adults save some money that they can spend on other things in the long term. Moreover, adults are extremely motivated to learn languages online because ~~they are able to~~ online ~~courses~~ courses require less time and enable the older population to create a flexible schedule for themselves. This is mostly linked to the fact that a lot of adults are always busy and do not have enough time to study, while e-learning helps them with that.

STUDENTS ARE MORE ENCOURAGED THAN EVER

Comparing the students' trends with that of adults', it is worth mentioning that ~~various~~ common reasons make pupils and adults feel motivated to study. As can be seen from the graph, most students are willing to learn languages online because of the multimedia content and flexible schedule and less time investment. The explanation for this trend is that

REASONS FOR LEARNING LANGUAGES ONLINE

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this report is to examine the most common reasons for learning languages online among various segments of the population, give explanations for the trends ~~depicted in the graph~~ and make a conclusion about the changes that might occur in these trends in the near future. The report ~~presented~~ is based on the survey conducted in 2019. Approximately 1000 school students and 500 adults took part in ~~the survey~~.

ADULTS ARE STILL MOTIVATED TO LEARN

According to the graph, about 30% of adults are encouraged to learn languages online because of the small price ~~of this education~~. This is mostly linked to the fact that most adults are eager to save money ~~on other things~~ and therefore prefer to learn languages online ~~rather than in a classroom~~. Moreover, ~~a large number of~~ many adults are motivated to learn online because this form of education allows them to create a flexible schedule. ~~The reason is explained~~ The major reason for this trend is that adults are always busy at work and e-learning helps them to make a special timetable for themselves ~~which is really convenient~~.

STUDENTS ARE MORE ENCOURAGED TO LEARN THAN EVER

Comparing the students' trends with the adults' ones we can see that common reasons motivate them to study online. As can be seen from the graph, ~~the most~~ most students are willing to learn languages ~~online~~ because of the multimedia content and flexible schedule. ~~The desire to learn~~ ~~comes from~~ Students like multimedia technology ~~for multimedia~~ because special ~~the~~ tools help them to memorise vocabulary easily. Pupils also ~~like~~ enjoy the flexible schedule ~~which e-learning offers~~ as they can study at any time of ~~the day~~.

CONCLUSION

To conclude, ~~it is worth mentioning that~~ there ~~has~~ have been no major changes in the trends ~~illustrated in the graph~~, and they are unlikely to occur ~~as people are choosing online learning~~ because of the price and flexible schedule. ~~Therefore, in all likelihood, the trends will stay this way for many years.~~
